

RC Egypt Discovering

Esna to Aswan sailing on a Sendal

Tour 6 Days Programme

First day

Check in to Dahabiya, then visit the Temple of Asna, then sail to the village of Al-Hajz, where you will stay overnight

Second day

Visit the Cape Antiquities and then sail to the city of Edfu

Third day

Visit the Temple of Edfu, then sail to the village of Ramadi, then sail to the village of Passau Island, where you will spend the night

Fourth day

Visit the village of Bassau, then sail to visit Mount Silsila and the Temple of Horemheb, then sail to visit the village of Fares, then sail to Maniha Beach, where you will spend the night.

Fifth day

Sail to visit Kom Ombo Temple, then visit the city of Daraw, the camel market, and the local market, then sail to Aswan.

Sixth day

Go by car to visit Abu Simbel Temple, then return to the boat. In the evening, a tour of the city of Aswan to visit the local market - souk - and the tourist market, then return to the boat to stay overnight, and in the morning go by car to Aswan airport.

If you wish any activity or visit not included in our proposal, we are at your disposal. In any case it will be an added cost to the final price.

Prices

Per trip minimum two cabins reserved, being each cabin of double use, and maximum of 3 cabins, lease 6 Persons

October to March	500 Euros per Cabin and day
April to June	450 Euros per Cabin and day
July to September	400 Euros per Cabin and day

The price includes :

Sendal trip

Transfer from and to the Aswan and/or Luxor airport if needed, as well as all transportation during the visits.

Permissions for the tour

Full board included, water, sofft drinks, tea and coffee

It is not included in the final price:

Tourist guide for the visit to the temples.

Alcoholic drinks

Entry tickets to the temples

Gratitude for the crew

Remarks

When visiting villages along the route, a conservative dress code would be appreciated.

The route and stops may be subject to change if sailing conditions recommend it.